Personal Notes.

J. L. Burch and daughter, Miss Maggie, of Kirk, were called to Brandenburg Saturday to see his sister Mrs. Thos. Greenwood, who is very sick.
Miss Lania Davis, of Louisville, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Henry Davis, at Basin Springs, returned home Saturday.
Middleton Barnwell and Clinton Quinn, of Louisville, who have resided here, left Monday for the east to enter the Alexandria Episcopal Seminary for a three years' course.
Miss Katie Graham Dittie returned to her home at Brandenburg Monday, after a three months' tour through the east in a private car with a school mate and her parents.

Given Up to Die.

B. Spiegel, 1204 N. Virginia St., Evansville, Ind., writes: "For over five years I was troubled with kidney and bladder ailments which caused me much pain and worry. I lost sleep and was all run down, and a year ago had to abandon work entirely. I had three of the best physicians who did me no good and was practically given up to die. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended and the first bottle gave me great relief, and after taking the second bottle was entirely cured." Solt by A. K. Fisher.

Petitions for Postoffices.

Petitions asking for the establishment of a postoffice at Hites Run and one at a point near Hites Run, old mill have been forwarded to the postoffice department at Washington.
If a postoffice for Hites Run is secured it will be kept by B. Beauchamp, who has just completed his store home and will soon be selling goods. If secured for the other place, H. J. Roberts will be in charge, his home being several miles from Hites Run.
In the petition for the office near Hites Run it is asked that the office be named "Mike." Postmaster Rowland, of the local office, has suggested that the other office be called "Pike," on it is probable that it will be known as the Hites Run postoffice.

The opinion has been expressed that these two offices, if secured, will take the place, in a measure, of the proposed rural free delivery route between Cloverport and Hardinsburg, via of Mattingly, a petition for which has been pending for two years and towards the establishment of which nothing has been done as far as known here.

Dr. Hardaway's Appointments.

Dr. A. M. Hardaway will be at Stephenson Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Sept. 25, 26 and 27, and at Union Star Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Sept. 28, 29 and 30, for the practice of dentistry.
During the week of October 2 to 9 Dr. Hardaway will be at Big Springs.

Misses Ella Smith and Sadie Dugree returned Sunday to Jeffersonville, after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hall.

CLARK CASES ARE AT LAST SETTLED.

The First Attaching Creditors On Poultry Swindler's Property to Be Paid—Others to Get Nothing.

Hardinsburg, Ky., Sept. 19.—(Special.)—The petition of W. C. Moorman, E. F. Lyons and Wilson & Co., to force C. M. Clark & Co. into bankruptcy, has been dismissed with costs, by Judge Evans in the Federal Court. The effect of this decision is, that there will be no private distribution of the proceeds of the attached goods of C. M. Clark & Co., but that the first attaching creditors, whose attachments are sustained, will receive their debts in full until the fund now in the court is exhausted. The other creditors will receive nothing. The parties who fought and won the case in the Federal Court are Pete Sheeran Bros. & Co., First State Bank, B. F. Beird & Co., and Joe Taylor. Their attorneys were Morris Eskridge, James Brown and Jno. P. Hawell, Jr.

Mrs. Linda Dittie Dead.

Mrs. Linda Dittie died at her home in Jefferson county Monday. She was the wife of the late James Dittie.

Dr. W. A. Walker, of Hardinsburg, will be at Custer October 3-4-5 to do dental work.

Hensley Resigns Position.

The town of Stanley is again without a peace officer. W. W. Hensley, who has been the marshal of the town since last April, has resigned. Hensley resigned a few days after he was acquitted for the killing of Joe Sapp, but the town trustees refused to accept his resignation. It is understood that Hensley's people were anxious for him to give up the office. On Saturday he again offered his resignation and it was accepted. He then took off his badge and declared he would no longer serve as marshal.—Tuesday's Owensboro Messenger.

Short Hardinsburg News Notes.

Hardinsburg, Ky., Sept. 19.—(Special.)—The County Board of Election Commissioners will meet here today, to select the election officers who will act during the coming year.
Prof. Collins has organized a literary society composed of the students of the high school. The society meets every Friday evening and the public generally is invited to attend.
Leo Greenwell, representing N. M. Sanders, commission merchant, of Louisville, has opened a produce store here, and will pay cash for poultry, eggs, etc. Mr. Greenwell is a hustling young man and will make a success of the business.

John Skillman has accepted a position with the Farmers' Bank. He is a young man of ability and promise, who will develop into a capable business man.
Bruce Moorman, of Harard, had a mare, valued at $125, stolen from him last Tuesday night. No trace of the thief has been found.

Fall Races, Sept. 16-October 7.

$2.05 round trip, Cloverport to Louisville and return, on Sept. 17 to 19, inclusive, good returning 3 days from date of sale. Also Oct. 1, 1 Oct. 7, inclusive, good returning Oct. 9.

Rev. Rushing's Farewell Sermon.

Rev. J. T. Rushing, presiding elder of the members of the Lexington conference, Methodist Episcopal church, South, preached his farewell sermon at Settle Memorial church, at Owensboro, Sunday night. Because of the time limit having expired he will be transferred to another field at the conference, which will meet at Louisville on September 27. Rev. Mr. Rushing is a man of much more than ordinary ability and has made himself very useful and popular in this city and the district, and the people at large, as well as those of his own denomination, will regret to lose him. Dr. R. W. Browder, one of the most able speaking elders in the conference, is being spoken of as a successor to Mr. Rushing, though there is no unanimity of sentiment in regard to this matter among the Methodists of the district.

Kirk Store Loses $360 to Robbers; Fourth Time Burglarized; No Clue.

Hardinsburg, Ky., Sept. 19.—(Special.)—Pete Sheeran Bros. & Co. store, at Kirk, was robbed of $360 worth of goods last Wednesday night. The goods, taken consisted mostly of jewelry and cutlery. About $400 worth of stamps was also stolen. The post office is kept in the store house. An entrance was effected by the thieves through the transom over the front door. All the doors were found open or unlocked the next morning.

Several runs were made by the dogs but there were no satisfactory results. They returned to Louisville Friday morning, and the robbery remains as much of a mystery as ever.

This is the fourth time the store has been burglarized in recent years, and the fact that the same kind of articles are stolen each time, would seem to indicate that the same thieves have looted the store upon each occasion.

No clue has yet developed that gives any hope of leading to the discovery of the burglars.

New Business in Town.

Few druggists in towns of Cloverport's size have as fine an optical department as Short & Haynes have fitted up in a corner of their drug store. It is not only attractively appointed but up-to-date in every respect and a credit to this enterprising firm. The stock of glasses carried by Short & Haynes is very large. They have the most modern instruments for testing the eyes and one of the latest and most handsome trial cases made. They guarantee every glass they sell. On a day's notice they have special prescription lens ground in Chicago.

Cured of Bright's Disease.

Geo. A. Sherman, Lisbon Red Mill, Lawrence Co., N. Y., writes: "I had kidney disease for many years and had been treated by physicians for twelve years; had taken a well known kidney medicine and other remedies that were recommended but got no relief until I began using Foley's Kidney Cure. The first half bottle relieved me and four bottles have cured me of this terrible disease. Before I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure I had to make water about every fifteen minutes, day and night, had passed a brick-dust substance, and sometimes a silty substance. I believe I would have died if I had not taken Foley's Kidney Cure." Solt by A. K. Fisher.

Obituary.

This community has again sustained a great loss in the death of one of its best citizens, Wm. H. Scott, son of Peyton and Serapha Scott, born May 14, 1813. After a lingering illness of several months' duration he entered into eternal rest September 5, 1905, at his home near Garfield. He was married to Amanda Simpson February 21, 1837, and to this union were born two children, Peyton E. Scott and Mrs. Eddie L. Gray, with the mother, are left to mourn the loss of a kind christian father and husband. Scott was born and reared on the farm on which he died. His was one of a quiet, home-loving disposition, of which we find but few in this restless, hurrying age, quiet and unassuming in every thing. Those who knew him best learned to value him most for his loyalty to truth and honesty. He was one of whom it could well be said "His word is as good as his bond." He professed faith in Christ and was baptized into the Baptist church at Lost Run in November, 1888, and went into the organization of the Garfield Baptist church three years ago, and lived a consecrated Christian life, that should be an example to all, and especially to his children, that they may strive to follow his example and live for God's glory. And while his wife and children sorrow for his loss, they have the blessed assurance that he is safe in the arms of Jesus. Garfield, Ky. A Friend.

HAS STOOD THE TEST 25 YEARS.

The old, original GHOVEN'S Tonic, Cough Syrup, and other medicines, from time to time in a tasteful form. No cure so far.

Several runs were made by the dogs but there were no satisfactory results. They returned to Louisville Friday morning, and the robbery remains as much of a mystery as ever.

Registration Day October 3.

Registration day comes this year on October 3 and will be held in every incorporated town in the county. All entitled to vote in November will be entitled to registration. The polls will open at 8 a. m. and close at 4 p. m. Each voter must register in the precinct in which he lives.

There will also be a supplemental registration on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, immediately preceding the November election.

Thousand People on Show Boat.

At least a thousand people attended the performance given here last Wednesday night on the Steamer Swallow, Swallow & Markle's new floating palace. A. M. Cheek, the manager, said the seating capacity of the boat is 1,300, and there were only a few sections where all the seats were not occupied. People were present from various points over the county and a large number came over from Tobinsport. Many of those who attended said the performance was the most edited and entertaining seen here this year.

The Steamer South had been advertised as the largest and finest show boat in the world. When the people saw it from the landing at the lower wharf they were satisfied that it excelled all Ohio river shows in these two respects. The company was a large, perhaps as ever seen here and above the average. The show was honestly presented and managed in a satisfactory manner.

Minnet Expect: Many Delegates.

President John B. Minnet, of the Hancock county A. S. of E., was in the city today conferring with the Deputies county A. S. of E. officials on the tobacco situation. He is a delegate to the tobacco growers' association, which is to meet here October 19, 19 and 20. He says his union will meet in special session about October 19 to prepare for the national meeting. He stated that several of the twenty-six locals in his county would send delegates to the meeting. Asked if he thought there would be 1,000 delegates at the meeting he stated that he expected at least one thousand delegates from Kentucky alone as every county is entitled to three delegates and every local wishing a separate representative is entitled to one.—Wednesday's Owensboro Inquirer.

WAS A VERY SICK BOY

But Cured By Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"When my boy was two years old he had a very severe attack of bowel complaint, but by the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy we brought him out all right," says Maggie Hixox, of Midland, Mich. This remedy can be depended upon in the most severe cases. Even cholera infantum is cured by it. Follow the plain printed directions and a cure is certain. For sale by Short & Haynes.

Price's Show Boat Sinks.

Cairo, Ill., Sept. 16.—Price's show boat struck a log at the mouth of the Cache river, five miles above this city, in the Ohio river, to-night and sank. The boat lies with three feet of water over her deck. The people all escaped but the show boat that was towing the show boat.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK

BLACK LICK BAPTIST CHURCH, NEAR GLENDEANE, DEDICATED ON SUNDAY; ALL DEBT WAS PREVIOUSLY RAISED.

Black Lick Baptist church, three miles southwest of Glendean, was dedicated Sunday. Rev. J. T. Lewis, of this city, preached the dedicatory sermon in the morning and Rev. Baker preached in the afternoon, an all-day meeting being held. A large crowd was present and dinner in abundance was served. The main feature of the dedication was the fact that the debt of the church had been raised and no contribution was asked for.

Rev. Lewis preached the dedicatory sermon at 11 o'clock taking text from the seventeenth chapter of John. The crowd was so large that only about two thirds of those present could get within the church to hear the remarks appropriate to the occasion that Rev. Lewis made during his sermon. The singing was very good and added much to the spiritual enjoyment of the day. After the dinner, hour, the rejoicing, congratulations and social side of the occasion were engaged in until 2 o'clock, when a sermon was delivered by Rev. Baker, who has been supplying the church, and will probably continue to do so until December, when the congregation expect to call a regular pastor.

The Black Lick congregation have a splendid home of worship for a country church. It is a frame building and about the size of the old Goshen church, which was razed to the ground. It is nicely painted and carpeted and makes an excellent appearance for its size and style of architecture. The choir and pulpit arrangements are especially nice.

Black Lick Baptist church and the new Baptist church at Glendean, which is known as the Glendean Baptist church, the congregation of which was formerly composed of the majority of the members of the two new churches. The old church formerly stood on the Johnson Deane farm near Glendean. The doors, the steeple, part of the floor and other material from it were used in the construction of Black Lick church.

Colt Show at Bewleyville.

Irvington, Ky., Sept. 19.—(Special.)—The colt show held at Bewleyville Saturday afternoon under the direction of Chas. H. Drury, was one of the swell social events of the season. The "400" was there and one had to draw slightly upon the imagination to feel that it must be the real horse show. Fourteen handsome colts entered the ring. The blue ribbon was justly placed upon the best colt in the ring, that of Wm. Kendall, Chas. Hardaway's colt, out of the second prize.

Mr. Sheldon Resigns Position.

A. C. Sheldon has resigned his position with the News as foreman, which he held for nearly two years. Saturday he went to Evansville, where his family have been for several weeks and where he will probably remain for some time. Mr. Sheldon was foreman of the Derby Game Bird, a poultry magazine published at Derby, Ind., before accepting his position with the News. Prior to the 1st of March, 1901, when he accepted the old News plan, he was in the employ of the paper for four years.

Mr. Sheldon is an experienced and capable printer and a competent newspaper foreman. All work done personally by him, or under his supervision, as foreman of the paper and in the job printing department, has been first class and up-to-date in every detail. He is fully acquainted with the business and gave entire satisfaction while in the employ of the News.

Make-Up of the Legislature.

The first number of the Kentucky Issue, the official organ of the Antislavery League, has just been received. Under the head of "What To Do in the Legislature," is the following:

"We must look carefully to the make-up of the next legislature. I suggest the following plan of operation:

- 1st. Ascertain reliably and by committee from the candidate himself his position on the "County Unit Bill."
- 2nd. If he will not commit himself and there is no candidate against him who will so commit himself as him if he will vote for the bill if a majority of his constituency can be shown to be for the bill.
- 3rd. If he so agrees send to us for blank forms of petition and have these signed by every voter in the county or district who will do so. To accomplish this the county should be assigned by precincts to those persons who will see that the petitions are signed.
- 4th. Let religious bodies everywhere pass resolutions asking representatives and senators to vote for the county unit bill. Push the work vigorously for the time is short. With the County Unit Bill Kentucky will be practically a dry state.—H. K. Taylor, Asst. State Supt."

Regarding the County Union Bill

the issue says, in part:

"Other measures may be desirable, but the bill that will give the majority of the people in the county the decision of whether saloons shall exist in the county, is by all odds the best measure to be secured."

CHECKS FRIENDS' ENTHUSIASM.

At Jefferson Club Dinner Mr. Bryan Says He's No Candidate.

Chicago, Sept. 19.—I want to make my position perfectly clear, I want to say to you that not only am I not announcing a candidacy, but I am not permitting a candidacy.

In these words William J. Bryan administered a check to the enthusiasm which at the Jefferson Club banquet given last night to Mr. Bryan's honor greeted the speeches advocating his nomination for the third time for President.

There had been warm words of praise for Mr. Bryan, particularly from Congressman Ollie M. James, of Kentucky, and Judge J. P. Tamm, of Covington, Ky., who had declared unqualifiedly for Mr. Bryan as the Democratic nominee for President in 1908, and from Alexander Troup, of New Haven, Conn., who declared that Bryan was the natural and legitimate leader of the Democratic party in the coming campaign.

"I am not now," said Mr. Bryan, "a candidate for any office. I have never said that I would never again be a candidate for office, but I want to say now that talk of candidacy for office does not affect me as it once did. I believe that my place in history will be determined not by what the people are able to do for me, but by what I am able to do for the people. I think it is now too soon to choose a candidate for President to make the race three years from now. It is too early to pick candidates to and I am sure I trust that before the time comes to name a man for the next presidential race I might be thrown upon our party's pathway, that a man may be chosen who will be able to do for the party more than I have yet been able to do."

Covers were laid for 300 guests, and among those present were Congressman H. T. Rainey, of Illinois; Congressman Ollie M. James, of Kentucky; Mayor Edward E. Dunne, of Chicago; Judge James P. Tamm, of Covington, Ky.; Samuel Alschuler, of Aurora, Ill.; E. L. Masters, president of the Jefferson Club; Clarence S. Darrow, and other Chicagoans.

A Cold Settled in His Kidneys.
A. J. Jennings, 9901 Butler St., Chicago, writes: "I am a switchman and am out in all kinds of weather. I took a cold when settled in my kidneys and I was in bad shape. I tried several advertised remedies with no benefit, until I was recommended to try Foley's Kidney Cure. Two thirds of a bottle cured me." Sold by A. R. Fisher.

Boy Starving.

(Fresno County Messenger.)
Sheriff Baskett and Hewitt McAnulty are feeding several head of mules on H. C. Woodson's farm near town and Sunday they went out to see how they were getting along and on their return they brought terrible news. It seems that "Noddy" Brown, who is Mr. Woodson's overman, had a boy to climb a corn stalk to see how the corn was getting along, and now the boy is growing faster than the stalk is growing faster than the boy can climb down and he is out of sight. Three neighbors have undertaken to chop the stalk down with axes and save the boy from starvation, but it goes so fast they can't hit twice in the same place. Mr. McAnulty says the boy is living on nothing but raw corn and has already thrown down over five bushels of corn. Quite a number went out Monday to ascertain the facts in the case.

SWINE RAISING SIXTY YEARS AGO.

Copied from the Poultry Tribune and published by request.

A writer in National Farmer quotes some interesting extracts from agricultural reports of 1854 which give the younger generation an excellent idea of the great improvement in this industry in the last half-century. We quote as follows:

"Recently we have looked over a little of the correspondence in an agricultural report made fifty years ago. Several farmers write very interesting letters about the hog business. An Alabama correspondent of 1854 says: 'Very few imported swine have found their way here. Nor is it necessary, as varieties can be multiplied at infinitum from the same stock by selection and treatment.' He adds that some of their hogs reach maturity at 18 to 24 months, while others require 30 to 36 months. The average value when killed is $10 to $12 per head, from which we infer that the weights were not heavy."

"A McHenry county, Ill., farmer says that hogs are raised there 'in great quantities, of almost every breed, from the long-nosed Hoosier or Prairie rooster to the small-boned Middlesex.' All these breeds are now extinct in Illinois, we believe."

"Another Illinois farmer was something of a pessimist so far as the hog business is concerned, as then carried on. He said:

"Most farmers consider hogs the most indispensable part of their stock. Some few gain largely by raising them, but I sincerely believe, if all the accounts were carefully balanced, the facts would show a heavy annual cost to the producer. Our farmers are not properly fixed for the profitable raising of hogs. Too much corn is fed to them, and when they are at last brought into market, generally at two years old, their heads have been twice cut off by corn cobs. The full of a year, when corn and other nuts ripen, is the only time that they will thrive without being fed upon the most costly of our crop—corn. Some few experiments have proved that the most profitable food for the farmer can be provided for one year, at any age, is clover, the raising of which may be said to be but just in its infancy. Of breeds of swine we have a great variety, from the genuine 'Landlike' up to the best 'Berkshire.' Experience has simply established the fact that cross-bred is decidedly advantageous. Many of our hogs do not mature at a less age than two years. These are mostly large-bodied, large-framed animals. Others again mature at a year old, and are generally diminutive in size, but small eaters and take on fat fast."

The crossing of such with the large is always attended with decided benefit. The cost of raising hogs will, of course, much depend upon the kind. Some cost not over $3; others double that sum. For the last two years the producer realized from 4 to 6 cents per pound for pork. This year the probabilities are against so high a figure."

"Maine seems to be away ahead of Illinois in the improvement in its hogs in the fifties. One correspondent said:

"We have excellent breeds of hogs, but much crossed. Pork is mostly made from oats and peas ground together and mixed with boiled potatoes. None packed for market. Average price 8 cents a pound. Average weight at 18 months old, 400 pounds."

"A Wayne county, N. Y., correspondent reports that the Suffolk breed is taking the lead there."

"A Harrison county, O., farmer says:

"The 'Berkshire' and 'Irish Gravel' are the best breed of hogs raised among us. With good feed and care they will weigh from 300 to 400 pounds each at 18 months old. Price of pork here varies from $4 to $6 per hundred. The former price will hardly pay for raising."

"In Center county, Pa., the Berkshire and Chester county Whites are reported as the best breeds, and the correspondents say that hog-raising might be a profitable business there if these could be kept 'without interfering with other swine of inferior quality.'"

"A Washington N. Y., correspondent says:

"Although it may not generally be known, I will state the propensity that swine have to eat the droppings of our domestic fowls. When the hog has once been contracted the hog loses his appetite for food, no matter what its quality, and if he has an opportunity he seeks it unrelentingly. The effects are equal to that of opium-eating on the human species—the appetite becoming morose, despondent, and, in his power, he constantly attends the fowls, seemingly only with the intent of gratifying the morbid appetite thus acquired. I know of no remedy except to shut them off from indulging in the fatal habit."

"I would here incidentally remark that the swine which have access to the dung of near cattle, which feed on corn, most industriously follow them and contract this filthy habit; but not to the degree mentioned above. Swine also which had upon fermenting stable manure become much more susceptible to cold."

order their commanders immediately after the signature of the treaty of peace to put the protocol in execution. The protocol is signed by Witte, Rosen, Komura and Takahira.

Are You Engaged?

Engaged people should remember, that, after marriage, many quarrels are avoided, by keeping their digestion in good condition with Electric Bitters. S. A. Brown of Bonnettsville, S. C., says: "For years, my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor, and became a mere wreck of her former self. When she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once, and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy."

Plans Mile-A-Minute Airship.

Roy Kuesenhouse, of Toledo, who has had more success as an aeronaut, perhaps, than any man in the country begin his career in aerial navigation three years ago, when, in company with his brother, he made a balloon ascension from the Toledo fair grounds. After an ascension of 1,300 feet had been reached, the balloon ran away and the boys spent the night in a wild time through clouds and over tree tops. They were able to cast their anchor the next morning at a point in an orchard, somewhat bruised but safe.

Of his experience he said: "Dirigibility of the airship I have already secured, but the problem at present is to secure an engine that at no time will lose its action. I had it to stop on me once while at a great altitude, but, fortunately, it immediately started up again."

"Aerial navigation is no longer a matter of chance. I use no reason why, in the end, a ship can be constructed that will travel a mile a minute, although twenty miles an hour is a good rate of speed at present."

"Within two or three years I hope to be able to leave Chicago and sail to stop on me once while at a great altitude, but, fortunately, it immediately started up again."

Miss Roberta McGavock Married.

Miss Roberta McGavock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. McGavock, who reside near town, was married Sunday to Mr. Perry Norvall, at Louisiana, Mo., where Miss McGavock held a position for several months as cashier in a large department store.

Miss McGavock is a most deserving young lady and has many friends in Breckenridge and Hancock counties. Only a few months ago she went to Louisiana.

Mr. Norvall's home is at Nashville, Tenn. He is a promising young railroad engineer.

Mr. Norvall will arrive here in November for a visit to her parents but Mr. Norvall will not come until next spring. They will reside at Kansas City.

Dr. Josiah Hale Dead.

Owensboro, Ky., Sept. 14.—Dr. Josiah Hale, the oldest practitioner in his section of the state, died this afternoon of general debility. He was for a number of years one of the leading physicians in Western Kentucky, but retired from active practice about ten years ago. He had degrees from several of the most prominent medical schools in America and England.

Dr. Hale was seventy-six years old. He was born near Fordville, Ohio county, and began the practice of his profession there. He is survived by his wife and three children.

His son, Dr. J. A. Hale, of Owensboro, and a sister, Mrs. Mattie Gray, of Fordville.

OUR MAGAZINE SECTION.

The Special Features—Original And Instructive Flatter.

The special attention of our readers is called to our magazine section, a feature of the News which was inaugurated a few weeks ago. It contains original and instructive matter of every kind, and is a most interesting and profitable feature of the News. The special articles are by writers of known reputation, and the profuse illustrations with the matter itself make it equal to the best magazine section published with the leading Sunday daily newspapers. The feature section this week is as follows:

MODERN CLIFF DWELLERS. The sky scrapers of big cities taking place of homes.

OPEN DOOR IN CHINA. Policy is asserted as result of Russian-Japanese war.

LITERARY WORKS OF JOHN RAY. To be published by his daughter.

HOW THE WORLD TRAVELS FOR PLEASURE. Great improvement in construction since early days of the velocipede and bicycle. Millions of dollars expended annually upon various kinds of pleasure machines.

THE WORLD'S ANARCHISTS. England, a dumping ground for the advocates of anarchy.

NATIVES OF SAMOA. American clothes cause consumption and other diseases.

Tumors Conquered Without Operations

Unqualified Success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in Cases of Mrs. Fox and Miss Adams.

One of the greatest triumphs of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the conquering of woman's dread enemy, Tumor.

So-called "wandering pains" or the presence of danger may be made manifest by excessive menstruation accompanied by unusual pain extending from the ovaries down the groin and thighs.

If you have mysterious pains, if there are indications of inflammation, ulceration or displacement, don't wait for time to confirm your fears and go through the horrors of a hospital operation; secure Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound right away and begin its use and write Mrs. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass., for advice.

Read these strong letters from grateful women who have been cured:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—(First Letter.) "In looking over your book I see that your medicine cures Tumors of the Uterus. I have been a doctor and he tells me I have a tumor. I will be more than grateful if you can help me, as I do so dread an operation."

—Fannie D. Fox, Chestnut St., Bedford, Pa.
Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—(Second Letter.) "I take the liberty to congratulate you on the success I have had with your wonderful medicine."

Eighteen months ago my monthly stopped. Shortly after I felt so badly I submitted to a thorough examination by a physician, and was told that I had a tumor of the uterus and would have to undergo an operation."

"I soon after read one of your advertisements and decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. After taking five bottles as directed, the tumor is entirely gone. I have again been able to work."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound: A Woman's Remedy for Women's Ills.

By the physician and he says I have no signs of a tumor now. It has also brought my monthly around once more, and I am entirely well. I shall never be without a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the house."

—Fannie D. Fox, Bedford, Pa.
Another Case of Tumor Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— "About three years ago I had intense pain in my stomach, with cramps and raging headaches. The doctor prescribed for me, but finding that I did not get any better he examined me, and, to my surprise, declared I had a tumor in the uterus."

"I felt sure that it meant my death warrant, and was very despondent. I spent hundreds of dollars in doctoring, but the tumor kept growing, till the doctor said that nothing but an operation would save me. Fortunately I corresponded with my aunt in the New England States, who advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before submitting to an operation, and I at once started taking a regular treatment, finding to my surprise that my general health began to improve, and after three months I noticed that the tumor had reduced in size. I kept on taking the Compound, and in ten months it had entirely disappeared without an operation, and I am using no medicine."

—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and words all to express how grateful I am for the good it has done."

—Miss Luella Adams, Colorado Hotel, Seattle, Wash.

Such unquestionable testimony proves the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and should give confidence and hope to every sick woman.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all ailing women to write to her at Lynn, Mass., for advice.

TWO CELEBRATED LECTURERS

On Alfalfa Train Farmers' Clubs are Asked to Attend in Body

Herbert Vreeland, Commissioner of Agriculture, Labor and Statistics, in his printed announcement of the "Alfalfa and Corn Specialist" train which is to be run over Kentucky between September 30 and October 4, names the auspices of the State Department of Agriculture, says:

"Joseph E. Wing, of Ohio, will be the principal lecturer on alfalfa, the most valuable forage crop in the world. It has been demonstrated that alfalfa can be raised in a large portion of Kentucky and its introduction will mean much to the farmer. It is the most prolific yielder, one of the best soil enrichers and one of the richest foods known. Booklets with full directions for sowing, etc., will be distributed along the route free of charge. Every farmer should avail himself of the opportunity of hearing two of the most celebrated lecturers on agricultural subjects in the United States.

"The corn department will be in charge of Prof. P. G. Holden, of Ames, Iowa, who last year increased the corn crop of Iowa 10,000,000 bushels. Don't fail to hear him on the proper selection of seed corn and other phases of corn growing. Prof. Holden is one of the foremost agricultural experimenters in the United States.

"This is the first special ever run over the State in the direct interest of the farmers and no farmer should miss the opportunity of hearing these celebrated men.

"Farmers' clubs are requested to attend in a body."

A representative of the Kentucky Experiment Station will also be on board, as well as Commissioner Vreeland, R. C. Crenshaw, Assistant Commissioner of Agriculture; R. C. Giltner, a prominent stockman, of business; Willis Wing, brother of Col. Joseph E. Wing, and perhaps several others interested in the movement will make the trip.

The introduction of alfalfa growing into Kentucky is due to the efforts of Commissioner Vreeland. Among the samples of alfalfa shown on the train will be a sample of the grain in one and one half feet in height grown on a one-hundred acre field one-half mile from Frankfort.

The train, an eight-car train, will be at Cloverport from 7:15 p. m., September 29, to 8:30 a. m., September 30. It will arrive at Stephensport at 8:40 for a thirty minute stop and at Irvington at 9:55 for a like stop.

Pain from a Burn Promptly Relieved by Chamberlain's Pain Cure.

A little child of Michael Strauss, of Vernon, Conn., was recently in great pain from a burn on the hand, and as cold applications only increased the inflammation, Mr. Strauss came to Mr. James N. Nichols, a local merchant, for something to stop the pain. Mr. Nichols says: "I advised him to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and the first application brought the inflammation and gave immediate relief. I have used this liniment myself and recommend it very often for cuts, burns, strains, and lame back, and have never known it to disappoint." For sale by Short & Haynes, Cloverport, Ky.

October Cosmopolitan.

Booth Tarkington, W. W. Jacobs, Alfred Henry Lewis, Edwin Levee, James L. Ford, Ambrose Bierce and Herbert Quick are contributors to the October "Cosmopolitan"—an unusually large number of prominent names for a popular magazine. Needless to say the entire issue is well worth reading, and the illustrations are attractive, being contributed by Will Owen, famous in England for his character work, W. L. Jacobs, Frank Penney, Johnson, Owen Lowell, Frank Yerbeck, Phillips Ward, Henry Raleigh, F. T. Richards and Seymour M. Stone. On the whole, it is a very beautiful magazine.

New Game Law in Effect.

The closed hunting season for rabbits and squirrels, which began last Friday, will continue until November 15, when the open game season begins.

According to an amendment to the game law it is unlawful to kill or capture or have in possession when killed any rabbit or squirrel during the forbidden period. Rabbits, however, can be caught with dogs or in snares. The penalty is a fine of not less than $5, nor more than $25 for each offense.

The law making a closed season on rabbits and squirrels, was secured by the sportsmen of the State to stop the practice of hunting for rabbits and squirrels.

This Week at Macaulay's.

Digby Bell in the Angustus Thomas Charles Dana Gibson comedy, based on the author's series of drawings. The education of Mr. Pipp, opens its first engagement outside of its New York one, and a three weeks triumph in Chicago, at Macaulay's Theatre, Louisville, next Tuesday, Friday and Saturday, where it will be for four performances. In addition to Mr. Bell, the entire cast which carried the play through an entire season at the Liberty Theatre, New York, last winter has been re-engaged and will be seen here. The principal characters, besides the inimitable Mr. Pipp, are his wife and two daughters, the latter being two girls, who it is thought are as perfect representations of the type idealized by Charles Dana Gibson and know familiarly as Gibson girls as flesh and blood can reproduce. Besides comedy which keeps the audience in roars of laughter there is a dramatic touch to the third act which raises this play to the standard of a powerful drama for a brief scene. The sale of seats opened Monday, September 14. The cast includes: W. B. St. Clair; Helen Tracy; Janet Beecher; Adele Lechman; Edith Johnston; Sam Coit; Digby Bell; Robert Warwick; Frank Powell; Fred Courtney; Elmore Carroll; Fred Reynolds; William Evans; Grace Thorne; C. Jay Williams; Harry L. Lang; and Beale Baldwin.

Plan For Controlling Marketing Of Tobacco Submitted to the Growers.

C. H. Taylor in Up-To-Date Farming.

Controlled marketing is the principle whereby we hope to maintain profitable prices for the products of our labor. Plans for controlling the marketing are many and varied. Crops, location, and local conditions make varied plans a necessity.

The Owensboro convention is to adopt the most feasible and practical plan for controlling the marketing of tobacco grown in the various states. And as the editors of Up-To-Date Farming have called for ideas along this line, one plan is submitted herewith. Consider it and if there are better ones bring them to the convention.

To be practical, a plan must be simple. Simplicity is the leading feature of this plan.

Approximately, all the tobacco grown in the United States, whether consumed at home or abroad, reaches some of the great tobacco markets sooner or later. These markets are at Cincinnati, Ohio; Clarksville, Tenn.; Edgerton, Wis.; Louisville, Ky.; Baltimore, Md.; Richmond, Va.; and Lancaster, Pa. There are a number of lower markets but these are the principal ones.

The different growers' associations should form a federation. This federation should establish a tobacco clearing house. In each of these markets, and in the area of sufficient importance to justify. A competent manager with assistants should be given charge of each.

All tobacco grown should be carefully classified, graded, weighed, priced and stored by local organizations and a complete report with sample sent to each clearing house and entered on the books.

Minimum prices on each class and grade should be established at the annual meeting of the federation. These prices should be forwarded to the clearing house managers.

All sales should be made only by the manager of the clearing house in the following manner. A catalog of tobacco, containing a complete report of the tobacco crop should be sent each company engaged in the manufacture of tobacco, and in case of export tobacco, to foreign dealers. This catalog will give information as to the quantity and quality of the tobacco, and buyers will be informed that only at the clearing houses can this tobacco be obtained.

Settlements and statements will be made monthly or quarterly as they are deemed best. To illustrate: During the quarter ending September 30, a clearing house makes sales of dark

Miss Katharine A. Carl enjoys the unique distinction of being the first person from the western world in all history who has been received into the intimacy of the Chinese Imperial shipping tobacco to the amount of $50,000. Each tobacco grower having dark shipping listed with the federation gets a payment in proportion to the value of his crop. At the end of each year, an annual statement of business should be made by each clearing house manager, and if a surplus of tobacco remains unsold, it will be carried over by all the members.

In this way, each tobacco grower will receive monthly or quarterly payments on his crop, and can secure advances if needed. Profitable prices will be maintained, and marketing will be controlled. Selling dark tobacco will be the farmer's business, but conducted by the farmers' agents under instructions given at the annual convention. Direct sales will be made, thereby saving to the farmers the profits now paid to an army of middlemen and commission men. Through organization the farmers can keep inspection and storage charges down to the minimum.

Manufacturers should welcome such a change for it will greatly facilitate their business and afford a certainty that is lacking under the old system. Allow us to refer briefly to a plan when by this work may be readily accomplished.

First let the federation be formed at Owensboro, and constitute a branch of the American Society of Equity as at present the organization for all farmers and all crops.

Second, by laws for the government of the tobacco branch, or federation, may be adopted as amendments to the constitution of the American Society of Equity.

Third, local county and district unions will attend to the local detail work, such as organizing new clubs or unions, grading, pricing, sampling, storing and keeping record of the tobacco, securing advances, etc.

Fourth, each class of tobacco growers may have their own executive committee.

Fifth, the head of the department, or federation, with necessary assistants, clearing house managers, etc., to be chosen at each annual convention of the tobacco growers.

This plan is respectfully submitted to the tobacco growers of America. It has been prepared for the dual purpose of uniting more solidly the tobacco growing interests, thereby increasing their power and at the same time facilitate the marketing of tobacco, and enable the tobacco growers to stand with the producers of other staple crops in the demand for profitable prices, insuring prosperity for all. C. H. Taylor.

palace. Miss Carl painted four portraits of the famous Empress Dowager of China, and for nearly a year resided at court, attended all fetes, and saw the Empress Dowager, on terms of pleasant and intimate companionship.

POLITICAL NOTES.

There is no trouble in the rank and file of the Republican party in this county, so far as we are able to learn. At Union Star both parties will poll their usual vote. This is one of the "hottest" precincts in the county, and nearly every voter is politician and a worker. Sam Bassett is a mighty strong man up there and a good many Democrats will vote for him on personal grounds. At Irvington and Beswickville very little is being said or done. You never hear politics mentioned save when a candidate comes around and broadcasts the subject. The people seem to be too busy and too prosperous to pay any attention to the election.

We met "Dink" Childs on the train the other day returning from Hancock county. He had been in that county for several weeks buying apples. When asked about the political outlook in that county he said: "Dick Owen stands mighty well with both Democrats and Republicans and will get a big Republican vote. Lost is not a strong man and will not carry the Republican vote. I have heard more than fifty Republicans say they could not support him and that they would vote for Owen. The Democratic candidate for sheriff, Kelly, is very popular and he will be elected. Nick Greenhouse, the Republican candidate for county clerk, seems to have a walk-over for that office." As for Meade county, Mr. Childs said that it would poll its usual Democratic majority of 600 or 700.

Politics is very quiet at the county seat, more quiet than we have ever known before at this time of a campaign. Both parties seem to be on the lookout for something to turn up and they seem to be waiting for the other fellow to turn it up. You ask a Democrat candidate for news of the campaign and he will tell you that things were never in better shape for his party. And, on the other hand, the Republicans will tell you the same thing. Sherman Ball says that he never, in the history of his campaigning, knew things to be in finer shape for his election and the entire Republican ticket, and you go to his opponent, W. F. Hook, and he will tell you that his outlook is fine and that there is no doubt of his election. The fact is that the voters are taking very little interest, so far as we are able to judge. They are saying very little and you seldom hear the election mentioned in a crowd where there is no candidate or a precinct politician. What it means is no one can tell, only that the people have made up their minds to vote their sentiments and they are not saying much about it. Whether this means success for the Republicans or Democrats no one can tell. This state of affairs is a good omen. It is an indication that the people have something to do, they are too busy attending to their own affairs and have no time to waste discussing county politics. In fact, there should be no politics in a county election. The thing to do is for the voter to select the best men, regardless of their politics, and vote for them.

CHAS. DRY'S WORK FOR STOCK INTERESTS.

Chas. Dry's colt show, as usual, attracted a very large crowd to Beswickville last Saturday. It reminded one of an old-fashioned county fair, minus the brass band. There was in the neighborhood of a thousand people present. Men, women and children for miles around were there dressed in their best bib and tucker, and all deeply interested in the outcome of the colt show. It was one of the best looking crowds we ever saw in Breckenridge county. There were more pretty women and girls, and handsome turnouts and fine horses and, as a matter of course, when it comes to the display of colts these couldn't have been beat.

Charlie Dry is certainly doing a great work for the stock interest of that section of the county. People are taking more interest in their horses and mules, raising more of them and taking more pride in them than they ever did before. There were fifteen colts contesting for the blue ribbon and not a bad colt in the whole bunch. They all showed their good stock and breeding. The three contesting colts were Wm. Kowall's, Chas. Harlaway's and Chas. Moorman's. The judges were Henry Livers, Ben S. McCoy and John Ditto. These judges, on the first round, could not agree, each casting a vote for a different colt. To unlock the tie vote, two more judges were called in, Thos. Hythe and Crawford Beauchamp. On the second ballot three votes were cast for Kendall's colt and one each for the others, giving the first premium to Kendall. The third ballot gave the second premium to Harlaway. These two colts were as handsome as pictures and it was a hard matter for the judges to decide which was the best. The only point in favor of Kendall's colt was its color. It is a beautiful bay, while Harlaway's is a beautiful light sorrel. The owners refused $100 each after the show.

In the mule contest, John Algood, of Meade county, captured the prize. There were a fine lot of mule colts, all handsome, smooth and of a good size. Algood's colt was a big, fine, high-headed fellow and in size equaled a good many three-year-olds.

The show turned out very satisfactory to all parties and while some were disappointed in not getting the first colts, yet it did not change their minds on the value and style of their colts.

There is nothing that a farmer or his wife or his children take more pride in than a beautiful young, active, high-bred colt. It's the pride of the whole household. And it is a good thing. When you arouse people's pride you have touched the finest chord in man's being. Colt shows are a good thing for the community and there ought to be more of them. We suggest to Squire Dry to engage a brass band for his next show and make an all-day affair of it.

TO CATARRH SUFFERERS

Hyomel Guaranteed to Cure by Short & Haynes or Money Refunded.

The popularity and increase in the sales of Hyomel are unique in the annals of medicine. Such astonishing cures have been made by this remedy that the proprietors have authorized Short & Haynes to sell every package of Hyomel under an absolute guarantee that it will cure catarrh. If it does not, the purchaser can have his money refunded by Short & Haynes.
Hyomel is no ordinary remedy. It is the only method of treatment that reaches by direct insulation to the most remote part of the air passages, a balsamic air that destroys all catarrhal germs in the breathing organs, enriches and purifies the blood with additional ozone, and makes a permanent and complete cure of catarrh.

The complete Hyomel outfit costs but $1.00 and consists of an inhaler that can be carried in the vest pocket, a medicine dropper, and a bottle of Hyomel. The inhaler lasts a lifetime, and if one bottle does not cure, an extra bottle of Hyomel can be obtained for 50 cents. It is the most economical of all remedies advertised for the cure of catarrh, and is the only one that follows Nature in the methods of treating diseases of the respiratory organs.

Breathe through the inhaler for a few minutes four times a day, and your catarrh is cured. That's all.

If not cured, Short & Haynes will refund your money.

May Organize Baptist Church.

SOFT CORE

Like the running brook, the red blood that flows through the veins has to come from somewhere.

The springs of red blood are found in the soft core of the bones called the marrow and some say red blood also comes from the spleen. Healthy bone marrow and healthy spleen are full of fat.

Scott's Emulsion makes new blood by feeding the bone marrow and the spleen with the richest of all fats, the pure cod liver oil.

For pale school girls and invalids and for all whose blood is thin and pale, Scott's Emulsion is a pleasant and rich blood food. It not only feeds the blood-making organs but gives them strength to do their proper work.

No Need

To Eat

That you bread. Indeed there is no need for poor bread in the first place. But it isn't so much in the kneading as it is in the flour. Poor flour won't make good bread; good flour will if it has half a chance. That's why so many people prefer

CADICK'S GOLD DUST FLOUR

They know that the flour is good because it makes good bread. It's always reliable. Have you tried it?

FARMERS IN GOOD SHAPE

Over State So Far As Abundant Harvest Is Concerned.

The State agricultural commissioner, in his report, is, in part, as follows:

The corn crop is a good one. The only complaints are that on low, wet lands it suffered for want of proper cultivation and some of it drowning out. But, taking the State over, the crop is a full average.

The yield of wheat per acre is a little below the average for the State. Oats and rye are above the average. The tobacco crop is also a good one, and an unusual amount has been housed for the time of year. There was some damage done by insects in some localities, but suffered for cultivation. There is also some complaint of house-burn of the early cutting. There seems to be quite a good deal of the 1904 crop still in hands of the farmers. Fourteen per cent of the barley and 25 per cent of the buckwheat are in good condition. Prices of tobacco of the 1904 crop, compared with prices of the previous crop, were for barley 14 per cent less, while that of buckwheat was 16 per cent more.

The hay crop is a full average in quantity, but a large per cent of it is more or less damaged by excessive moisture at the time of harvesting. Live stock of all kinds are reported in good condition. No disease of any kind is reported from any county in the State. A vast number of calves of young colts and mules are reported. Breeding cattle and sheep are about an average, while breeding swine are a little below. On the whole, the farmers seem to be in good shape, so far as an abundant harvest is concerned.

Street Cleaning in West End.

The work of removing grass, weeds and rubbish from the West End, which was so thoroughly done in the East End, is now being done in the West End, by a force of men. More street cleaning has never been done here, perhaps, in any previous year, and the city authorities are being commended for the interest taken in the health and appearance of the city.

Deaths at Hudsonville.

Miss A. Addie Adams, of near Hardin Springs, one of the best known and most popular members of the county, has been severely afflicted this summer. Her mother, Mrs. W. H. Adams, has been quite sick for the past seven weeks with flux and during that time two of her sister's children, Baby Connor, aged 2 years, and Wesley Connor, aged 3 years, have died of the same disease at their home near Hudsonville, Breckenridge county.—Ellzabethtown Mirror.

BENEFIT TO MANKIND

One of the Greatest Discoveries of the Nineteenth Century.

There is nothing in the way of a discovery in the nineteenth century that has proved of greater benefit to mankind than that of two eminent French chemists, Merges and Gautier in name, who discovered a way to separate the medicinal curative elements, of which there are about fifty different kinds, in the cod's liver from the oil, and give to modern medicine all the tonic, body-building and curative properties of that grand old remedy, cod liver oil, unadulterated by the oily, greasy part, which was never proved of no value whatever, either as a food or medicine. Thus they produced Vinol.

Vinol is guaranteed to contain in a highly concentrated form all the medicinal elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cod livers, and whenever old fashioned cod liver oil or emulsion will do good, Vinol will do far more good—for being without oil, it is delicious to the taste, easily assimilated, and won't upset the weakest stomach.

Vinol tones up the digestive organs, creates a hearty appetite, makes rich red blood and creates strength for old people, weak women, young children and after sickness, and for all pulmonary troubles it has no equal.

So strong is our faith in Vinol that we freely offer to return money in any case where it fails to give satisfaction. Short & Haynes—Druggists.

BETTER PRICES REALIZED

For Tobacco After Growers' Meeting

—Preparing For Second.

Arrangements are being rapidly completed for the meeting of the National Tobacco Growers' association, which will be held in Owensboro October 18, 19 and 20. The business men of the city and the farmers of Daviess county have united in raising funds to make the entertainment of the delegates what it should be. Through the freight bureau of the Business Men's association, reduced rates have been made from nearly all tobacco-growing states. Among the speakers will be J. A. Everett, of Indianapolis; John W. Gaines, congressman from Tennessee; Col. John S. Cunningham of North Carolina; S. C. Adams, of Virginia, president of the Interstate Tobacco Growers' association; Bro. Charles Fort, president of the Dark Tobacco Protective association of Tennessee. The Tobacco Growers' association is a branch of the American Society of Equity, and the meeting will be under the auspices of that organization. It will be the second annual meeting of the association.

The first meeting was held in Lynchburg, Va., November 11 and 12, 1904, and recommended that the 1904 tobacco should be sold for less than an average of 9 and 9 cents. These prices have since been realized in many instances and the general average for tobacco during the past year has been much higher than in 1904-05. The coming convention intends to declare the minimum prices at which each class and grade of the 1905 crop should be sold. This convention will be composed of the leading tobacco growers of Kentucky, Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee and West Virginia, in view of the victories already gained by the organized growers, this meeting will be largely attended and the results will be watched with intense interest by both growers and dealers.

CHAS. CASHMAN WEDS TODAY.

Former Principal Public School Here Wins Bride in Colorado.

Mr. Charles Franklin Cashman, a former principal of the Cloverport public school, will be married to Miss Elizabeth Susan Doynton, at Trinity church, Trinidad, Colo., at 7 o'clock this evening. Miss Doynton is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barrett Doynton, of Trinidad. They will be at home after October 13 at the corner of Chestnut and Seventh streets, Trinidad.

Mr. Cashman has many friends and relatives in this county. He is a son of the Rev. Wm. F. Cashman and one of the best and most promising young men that Breckenridge county has produced. Mr. Cashman and his sister, Mrs. Adolph Selig, of Denver, Col., have been in the West for several years.

A Peaceful Kentuckian.

From the Courier Mercury. The editor of the Democrat calls the editor of the Mercury a coward. He intimates that he would take pleasure in fighting, in fact, he would like to make a breathitt cent out of old Nicholas. But he cannot get at him. We had rather he should fight. We are too old to begin taking our fellow man's blood, but as we pass the door of the editor of the Democrat four or five times a day—pass within ten feet of him dozens times daily, he is at liberty to shed our blood if he suits him. We had rather he should kill us than that his wife and children should be made a widow and orphan at our hand. If he thinks he can show his bravery by violating the law he has been chosen to enforce, he is welcome to proceed. He is afraid to attack a Christian people, even hearing all his charges be in his anger makes but never utter a word or line to prove.

To Open For Business Next Month.

The new bank recently organized at Hudsonville, known as the First State Bank of Breckenridge, is expected to open for business by October 15. The bank will occupy the store room of Mrs. S. J. Brown until a handsome brick building can be erected.

HANDSOME NEW PARLOR CARS

On Henderson Route—Bombardment of Train—Railroad Notes.

Handsomeness new vestibule parlor cars were placed on Henderson Route trains 41, 42, 43, and 44 last week. The new cars replace the old chair cars, which will be reconstructed. The company's shops here. It is understood that they will be lengthened to the standard size and vestibuled and one of them be converted into a pay car. The new cars are sixty feet long and have six-wheel trucks. There are no drawing rooms but a main and a smoking compartment. Riding in them is more comfortable than in the old cars. The additional charge for riding in the parlor cars is fifty cents from Louisville to Evansville and thirty-five cents to all way points.

The rear coach of the Cloverport Accommodation, west bound, was bombarded with ears of corn last Wednesday morning by unknown parties, somewhere between this city and Hindsville. The ears of corn were thrown through the windows and were found in the coach. No one was in the coach and it is not known where they were thrown at the train. This is the fourth recent attempt to damage coaches on the Henderson Route. On Saturday September 2, train No. 41 was stoned at Stephensport and train No. 43 at Mystic and the Sunday following a pistol was fired through a window on train No. 42.

Five extra car mechanics and two extra mechanics have been given employment at the Henderson Route shops because of a rash of work.

Geo. Wendelen has resigned his position as machinist at the shops and gone to Louisville to take a similar position with the Louisville and Nashville railroad.

A Divorce Congress Proposed.

Washington, Sept. 13.—Gov. Pennington, of Pennsylvania, is leading a movement looking to the assembly of a national congress for the purpose of preparing a uniform law on the subject of divorce to be enacted by the legislatures of the various States. His idea is that there shall be three delegates from each State to be appointed by the Governor. He has been in correspondence with the Governors of the States and has received the following answer from other replies:

Gov. Beckham—I shall be glad to aid you in the event such a conference is called and will appoint commissioners from this State.

Gov. Hanly—In behalf of the State of Indiana I have the honor to accept said invitation, and, in the near future, will appoint delegates to said proposed congress and advise you of their names and places of residence.

Good For Breckenridge Growers.

J. W. Dunn, president of the Daviess county union of the American Society of Equity, has addressed a letter to the farmers of that county. He advises them to hold their new tobacco crop and says that the members of the Society have no right to make contracts until after the national meeting. His advice is good for Breckenridge tobacco growers also. The letter is, in part, as follows:

"Let me give you a few words of advice with regard to the crop. You must keep it off the market until we sell the old crop. I don't think we will have to wait long. There is no fight between us and the trust. They would buy from us as willingly as anybody. All the talk is done by the little 'one-horse' men. They fear they will lose a good job and don't care about us."

"We have no right to make any contract for the crop until after the meeting of the National Tobacco Growers' association in Owensboro, October 18, 19 and 20. The price will be set there, and if you will wait a little while I think you will be well pleased."

"There is not half a crop this year. If we hold what we have we can win."

Hardin Springs' Shiner Caught.

Owensboro, Ky., Sept. 13.—Deputy Marshal C. T. Nichols returned to the city this morning with Jim Miller, an alleged moonshiner, from Hardin Springs, Ky. Nichols spent two weeks endeavoring to capture Miller. He finally found him, and, on the demand to surrender, he ran. Nichols ordered him to stop, and when he did not do so the officer fired, wounding Miller seriously in the arm and shoulder.

SOMETHING DOING IN THE COUNTRY.

Lovery Lovie.

Last week correspondent Charlestown (W. Va.) Advocate: Here is something that makes us feel proud. Miss Lovie Bender, one of our highly esteemed young ladies, brought the red ribbon home from the Inwood fair last Thursday as the premium for being the most stylish young lady on the ground. Now, boys, be careful and stay away, as the old gentleman has his gun well loaded with fish salt. Good for you, "Miss Lovie."

Tom Luck's Bad Luck.

Hagerstown Mail, Mr. J. C. Krepf reports a strange accident to one of his friends Thomas Luck, at Atlantic City. He went out on a boat at noon and was blown off shore and could not be found, and did not show up until he drifted ashore the next day at noon. He was nearly dead of exhaustion.

We've Heard It, Too.

Rayville (Mo.) Enterprise: There's something very strange around in the country which has been seen and heard after night. From the way it batters and looks it must be a wolf. It most scares the dogs to death and whatever comes in its way. Before it does any damage the people should know if it gets a chance.

Big Time Coming.

Philomath (Oreg.) Review: They are expecting a wedding in the Independent neighborhood before long. Neighbors for miles around have their pans, cow bells, horse fiddles, and dog horns ready for a grand charivari when the event takes place. We will give the names of the lovers later.

A Gentleman's Report.

Drain (Oreg.) Nonpareil: Port Oxford evidently is a very windy place. A gentleman just from there reports that last week the wind blew a ship up against a barn, about twenty feet from the ground, and held it there four days, until it started to death.

Mrs. Nancy's Frenzied Fancies.

Richmond (Mo.) Republican: Mrs. Nancy tried to get rich by farming, but couldn't; she then tried weaving carpets, making maple sugar, but she didn't succeed, and now she is making doctored medicine and baking powder.

STOMACHS ON STILTS.

The man who puts on stilts does not know his actual strength. He only feels it. Stomachs are the stilts of the stomach. They make a man feel better for the time being, but he feels a great deal worse for them after-ward.

The need of the man whose stomach is "weak" is not stimulation, but strength. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery perfectly answers that need. It contains no alcohol, no stimulants, it cures the weak, foul stomach with its attendant bad medicine, bad taste, poor appetite and kindred symptoms.

In the year 1890 I had an attack of indigestion and did not feel well. I had a good deal of trouble in my stomach and bowels, and also in the rectum. I could not eat anything without feeling much distress afterward, but by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery I was sound and well, and could eat anything I pleased without suffering in the least. Could also go as much as I pleased in the water, and was cured from the trouble since, and it was not years ago that I was so sick.

The sole motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make a little more profit. He gains; you lose. Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." It is the only reliable cause and cure for all stomach and bowels ailments cured by Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

Frauds Result of Secret Ballot; Pryor For The Viva Voce System.

A Frankfort telegram says: "Whether the people of Kentucky will continue to vote by secret ballot or will return to the viva voce method is the question to be determined by the voters themselves at the coming November election."

"Just now very little interest is being manifested in the matter, and probably not one voter in ten knows that the question will be voted on this fall. It is estimated that not over one-half the votes cast for candidates will be cast either way on the proposed constitutional amendment to change the method of voting, but the majority of the votes cast on this question will control, and not a majority of the 400,000 votes."

The legislature of 1904 passed an act providing that a vote be taken on the proposition to amend the constitution that the viva voce system of voting should take the place of the secret ballot system. On the passage of the bill, the large majority of the Republican legislature voted against it, so it is fair to presume that the Republicans will vote against the proposed amendment this fall and a majority of the Democrats for it, although neither party has officially declared itself on the question.

After the Trial.

"After a trial of thirteen years there is much dissatisfaction in Kentucky over the practical working of the secret ballot plan. One of the warmest advocates of returning to the viva voce system is former Chief Justice W. S. Pryor, of Henry county. He served over twenty years on the appellate bench and says his investigation of election frauds convinced him conclusively that more frauds, by two to one, are committed under the secret ballot plan than under the viva voce plan. He says it is possible, under the secret ballot, for a few men to control the election by a few newly executed frauds, and that no way has been found to prevent them, whereas under the viva voce system each voter has his name recorded and can see that his name is properly entered. If a contest

Potato Crop in Bad Shape.

The Weather Bureau at Washington reports the late potato crop is bad everywhere, on account of blight and decay in nearly every section of the country. The apple crop, also, is a failure.

State Development Convention.

(Louisville Times.) Arrangements are almost completed for the State Development Convention to be held at the Galt House, October 19-21. The main speakers of note have been invited and are expected to attend. Gov. Beckham will preside over the convention. About 1,500 delegates are expected to attend the convention. They will represent every section of the State and the commercial and agricultural organizations of the various localities. Ample entertainment will be provided for the delegates. A band and orchestra will be in attendance during the entire session. During the convention there will be trolley and automobile rides, a smoker and banquet. The convention will convene in the afternoon of October 19 at 2 o'clock. After an informal reception, a temporary organization will be effected. The business session will begin at the night session, which convenes at 8 o'clock, when the permanent organization will be made. A smoker will be given the same evening.

people under the viva voce system the record shows how much man voted, thus greatly lessening the opportunity for frauds.

"Three Days" Elections.

Up until 1840 Kentucky had "three days" elections and only one voting place in each county. One could vote on any of the three days, and votes cast viva voce and recorded in a book accordingly. Everybody came to the court house to vote, and it was a jubilee week. Whiskey in those days was not taxed and the best sold for about $4 a barrel. Frequently a candidate would buy a barrel, and it would be sold at the court house, and the voters would be invited to help themselves.

New Constitution.

In 1849 a new constitution was framed and adopted, which provided for dividing the counties into precincts for voting, but the viva voce method was retained. Later, when the population became more dense, there was much complaint about crowding the polls on election days, and it was no uncommon thing, especially in cities and towns to see the entrance to the voting place crowded twenty deep, thus entering many timid people from voting. This crowding and pushing naturally led to fighting and election rows became so frequent that some change in the law became a necessity. When the constitution of 1880, with its provision for secret ballot was adopted, the succeeding legislature went a step further and provided that no one but those actually in the act of voting should remain nearer than fifty feet to the polls. This law had the most beneficial effect in reducing election fights and many attributed it to the secret ballot rather than to the "fifty-foot" law.

This same constitution provided that all school trustees and school boards should be elected by the viva voce system, although voted for at the same election at which other officers are voted for by secret ballot. The advocates of returning to the viva voce method say that fewer frauds have been committed and fewer contests filed for schools trustees than for any of the other officers that are filled by the secret ballot method, and that fact alone should condemn the secret ballot.

Neither the Democratic nor Republican campaign has opened yet, and no literature has been sent out indicating the line up on the voting system, but it is generally understood that the Republicans will make an organized fight to retain the secret ballot, while the Democrats will not take sides, but a majority of them will return to the viva voce method of voting.

Will Fight Consumption.

The final organization of the Kentucky Anti-Tuberculosis Association, with a membership of 300, was effected at a meeting in Louisville last week. Some of the State's most prominent men are members of the association.

At the conclusion of the meeting George L. Schou, secretary of the association, said that the members had shown the greatest enthusiasm, and that an active campaign against tuberculosis would be taken up at once.

The various committees are expected to begin work in their departments immediately. Within thirty days the association hopes to have all preparations completed for a dispensary where patients may be treated. The funds for this will be furnished by the fee of $5 which each member of the association pays on entrance and by voluntary contributions. The Ways and Means Committee will be in charge of raising this money.

The association hopes ultimately to erect hospitals for the treatment of tuberculosis exclusively. Experiments will be conducted as to the best means of fighting the malady in this climate.

River Surveyors at Brandenburg.

A party of Government engineers and helpers numbering fifty, who are surveying the Ohio River, are stationed here. They arrived Saturday night from West Point. The work so far is progressing satisfactorily and is being pushed as fast as possible, and it is thought a good deal of the work will be completed before winter sets in in earnest. They will be here about two weeks.—Herald County Messenger.

ECZEMA ON LITTLE GIRL

Sleepless Nights for Mother and Awful Suffering of Child.

CURED BY CUTICURA

Had Given up All Hope of Ever Making Any Cure.

Mrs. I. B. Jones, Addington, Ind. T., writes: "My little girl had been suffering for two years from eczema, and during that time I could not get a night's sleep, as her ailment was very severe. I had tried so many remedies and spent so much money, deriving no benefit. I had given up all hope of making any cure. As a last resort I was persuaded to try Cuticura, and to my great delight a marked change was manifested from the first application. I gave the child a bath with Cuticura Soap, using a soft piece of muslin cloth. This I did twice a day, each time following with Cuticura Ointment, and at the same time gave the Resolvent, according to directions. One box of Ointment and two bottles of the Resolvent, together with the Soap, effected a permanent cure. I cannot thank this publication enough for bringing this information to my attention, as it has saved me a great deal of money and suffering in curing myself."

Mules Bring Good Prices.

Gaston, Ky., Sept. 19.—(Special.)—R. J. Patterson and Sam W. Carden sold out their bunch of seven head of two-year-old mules for $1,500. Taylor, Dowell, of near Irvington, being the main purchaser, getting twelve head and H. L. Bell getting the rest. These mules were purchased in Meade and Breckenridge counties at weanings at a cost of $50 per head. A Meade county mule took the premium at C. H. Drury's sale show, in Breckenridge county last Saturday. The mule belonged to John Algood and its owner refused $80 for it.
